

Stolen credit cards used in store purchases (Lancaster Online) (consolidate credit card debt)

Contributed by Webmaster

More info...

State police are investigating a theft Saturday at the Dollar General store, 3337 Lincoln Highway, Paradise, police said. Someone entered an employee-only area of the business between 11:30 a.m. and 8:30 p.m., removed a female's wallet and then used her credit cards to make purchases in the area, po...

NZ consumer spending on debit, credit cards falls (Scoop.co.nz)

March 9 (BusinessWire) -- New Zealanders spent less on debit and credit cards in February, the first decline in eight months, which may stoke speculation the central bank will be inclined to hold off on raising interest rates until the second half ...

Bluffton woman wanted for stealing IDs, credit cards from elderly (Live 5 News Charleston)

BEAUFORT, SC (WCSC) - The Beaufort County Sheriff's Office is searching for a Bluffton woman wanted for using credit cards she stole from elderly patients, according to a release sent out by the agency Monday.

Customers Can Now Build Custom Credit Cards (WCBS-TV New York)

Credit cards are convenient and easy, but the terms and conditions, not so much. What if you could change that? Thanks to some changes being made by several credit card issuers, you can actually custom design the terms of your card.

More people used credit cards in 2009 (Malaya)

With low interest rates and more perks and rewards promotions, more Filipinos used their credit cards in buying goods last year.

How to cope with new fees, rule changes on credit cards (USA Today)

Credit card companies are expected to implement a variety of creative fees to cushion the impact of a reform bill signed into law last year.